The inspirational surroundings and friendly staff are sure to leave you with fond memories of your special day.

Inside, the impressive Victorian banqueting halls are unforgettable. In particular, The Picture Gallery, which is renowned for holding the country's finest private collection of Victorian art, provides a magnificent backdrop for your wedding reception.

in a wonderful setting...

Within the grounds, the 110 acres of wooded parkland foster an atmosphere of tranquillity. The peaceful setting makes it hard to believe that Royal Holloway is just one mile from the M25, close to London Heathrow and only 45 minutes train journey from London Waterloo.

With over 30 years experience of organising wedding receptions we have fine-tuned the service we offer. Our helpful and friendly staff will take the weight off your shoulders, allowing you to get on with enjoying your day.

'We would like to thank you all at Royal Holloway for the wonderful wedding reception... The room was beautifully laid out and everybody commented on how good the food was. The venue was of course majestic - but most of all the planning came to fruition without any hitches for which we want to thank you. We will have no hesitation in recommending your venue to others.'
